JSC fundraiser Wednesday 23rd October

Just a reminder that the JSC will be organising a fundraiser for State Schools Relief next Wednesday in the form of a pyjama day. This charity supports students whose families struggle with the cost of school uniform. Raising money for this charity will support vulnerable students and give us all a chance to get dressed up in our favourite pyjamas.

Have a great week

The grade 1 and 2 students are learning about growing and changing. This week they had a close look at mealworms. Over the term they will observe them growing and changing.

JSC News: Pyjama Day on Wednesday 23rd October!

On Wednesday 23rd October, JSC is hosting a Pyjama Day! Students are invited to wear their favourite sleepwear to school in support of a great cause. This will be a gold coin donation event, with all proceeds going to State Schools' Relief, an organisation that provides essential educational supplies to students in need. As State Schools' Relief has supported our school over the years, we are excited to give back through this fundraiser. We can't wait to see everyone in their fun and comfy pyjamas!
